

Contents

For teachers	v
For students	vii
For parents	vii
Author acknowledgements	viii
Publisher acknowledgements	viii
Chapter 1: What is art?	1
Why is art important?	2
Artistic practice	3
The forms	4
The conceptual framework	5
The artist	5
Artwork	6
World	8
Audience	9
The frames	11
The subjective frame	11
The cultural frame	12
The structural frame	13
The postmodern frame	15
Chapter 2: People and power	18
What is a portrait?	20
Faces of me	22
What's in a smile?	24
Trying to be real	26
Everyday people in art	28
Confronting faces	30
A woman's view?	32
Shifting identities	34
More than a face	36
Looking in, looking out	38
The Archibald Prize	40
Move on over, baby!	42
Chapter 3: Places and spaces	44
What is landscape?	46
Australian landscapes	48
Impressionist landscapes	50
Post-Impressionism	52
Changing landscapes	54
The spirit of place	56
Wrapping space	58
The fabric of life	60

The artist's studio	62
Familiar places	64
Connections	66
Another space and time	68

Chapter 4: Objects, signs and symbols 70

Ideas in art	72
In the abstract	74
Shock value	76
Art can change your life	78
Abstract Expressionism	80
Art as illusion	82
Material practice	84
Signs and text	86
Pop art	88
Art is anything?	90
Conceptual art	92
In the fourth dimension	94
Art without labels	96

Chapter 5: Making and studying art 98

What is a body of work?	99
Creating your own body of work	99
Writing an artist's statement	100
The visual arts process diary	103
Studying art	106
Thinking about art	106
Writing about art	107
The language of art writing	107
The structure of art writing	108
Learning art words	109
Timeline	110
Index	111
Resources	Back cover

